

Agronomy Opportunity
Sugar Rotational Development Program
FLORIDA CRYSTALS CORPORATION

A Great Company to GROW With

A Growing Sugar Company in South Florida has opportunities on its farms in South Florida for Agronomy / Agribusiness majors. We are looking for graduating Seniors who would like to raise Cane! We have 180,000 acres of Sugar Cane and Rice farming operations in South Florida.

Florida Crystals will provide the right college graduates an opportunity to work in the areas of Agronomy Research or Farm Management that consists of unlimited opportunities for both rice and sugarcane. The Sugar Rotational Development Program will provide the new college graduate a chance to learn the Sugar Business with rotational assignments in Planting, Growing, Harvesting, Water Management, and Variety and Biofuel development for our renewable energy business.

These jobs are located near West Palm Beach, Florida and interested students must legally be eligible for employment in the United States without sponsorship. The potential candidate must have a minimum 2.5 GPA , a good driving record, a clean background check, the ability to pass a drug and alcohol test, and the ability to physically be able to work in an industrial / farming environment. Florida Crystals offers excellent pay and benefits including transportation assistance and bonuses.

Interested Students should send a resume to Okeelanta_Resume@FloridaCrystals.com or fax a resume to (561) 993-1605.