

Announcing:

Agricultural Leadership Education Academy

ALEA is a 5 day, 4 night intensive program to be held on the campus of Auburn University in June 2010. ALEA is designed to enhance and further develop leadership skills of rising juniors and seniors.

How to Apply?

ALEA applications will be available on-line in January at www.ag.auburn.edu/goplaces/

- Click on Future Student Events
or contact Megan Ross,
(334) 844-4768

Due Friday, March 17, 2010

ALEA participants:

- Stay on Auburn's campus
- Develop a professional network with faculty and students in Leadership Studies
- Develop skills for your future career like interviewing skills and creating résumé and cover letters
- Receive training and experience in leadership, teaching, ACT test prep, and scholarship applications
- Tour educational research facilities
- Interact with research scientists in their laboratory setting

Teachers: Faculty mentor sessions will be held on state and national ag curriculum, teaching updates, distance education, CEU's and more!

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE

Higher Education SPECA Grants Program