

Due to the reductions in funding that many locations across the South have experienced this year (our own included!), I have requested that the SCASC meeting that we had agreed to host in Arkansas this year be postponed until next year. I am concerned that we'll throw a party and no one will come! Perhaps next year, funding will be more conducive for travel to attend a meeting in Arkansas.

– Dr. Randy L. Raper, USDA-ARS
Dale Bumpers Small Farms Research Center
randy.raper@ars.usda.gov