

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Behind every editor is a team of conscientious reviewers, who express their aspirations for a journal in terms of their evaluations of manuscripts. The following reviewers participated during the past year (since Volume 5) in reviewing for Southern Rural Sociology. They have performed their task with great success. Thank you all!

Thanks also to all authors who submitted, even though some of your manuscripts were not accepted. We are pleased to have your submissions and hope you consider Southern Rural Sociology again.
