

Position Title: M.S. Graduate Research Assistantship in Aquaculture

Agency/Location: Auburn University, AL / Department of Fisheries and Allied Aquacultures

Responsibilities: Development and assessment of techniques to produce all-male broods of Australian Red Claw Crayfish.

Qualifications: Requirements include a B.S. in biology, zoology, or related field with competitive GPA and GRE scores. Research experience preferred.

Salary: Student stipends - $16,000, full tuition waiver.

Closing Date: Until filled. Start as early as Summer, 2008.

Contact: Send letter of interest, current CV (with GPA, GRE scores), names and contact information for three references and transcript photocopies to Dr. Jim Stoeckel

(jimstoeckel@auburn.edu). Department of Fisheries and Allied Aquacultures, Auburn

University, AL 36849-5419, (334) 844-9249 or (334) 844-9304