

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE NEW STUDENT INFORMATION GUIDE

The mission of the Auburn University College of Agriculture is to help solve global food, agricultural and environmental challenges through excellence in education, research and outreach programs that promote sustained economic development.

ADVISOR & CLASS REGISTRATION

- + As a new student in the College of Agriculture, you will be assigned a faculty advisor shortly before your first semester.
- + To find who your faculty advisor is, log into AU Access, clicking on the tiger i tab, then on the DegreeWorks button. Your faculty advisor and the advisor coordinator for your department will be listed.
- + You must meet with your advisor prior to registering each semester. Your departmental undergraduate coordinator will email you directions on how to set up an advising appointment.
- + Students are assigned a registration time (time ticket) during each registration period. To find your time ticket go to tiger i and click on "Check your registration status."
- + In order to register for classes, students must meet with their faculty advisor. After meeting with your faculty advisor, your alternate PIN will be reset to 111111. This PIN will be used for class registration.
